PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, on Friday March 18, 2011 Cmdr. John C. Hensel, II assumed command of Training Squadron TWO (VT-2), the oldest primary training squadron in the U.S. Navy known as the “Doerbirds” with the mission to provide primary and intermediate flight training to select student aviators of the U.S. Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard and a number of allied nations; and

WHEREAS, Commander Hensel graduated from the United States Naval Academy in May of 1992 and after training was designated a Naval Aviator in March of 1995, during the course of his career has obtained a Master of Arts in National Policy and Strategic Studies from the Naval War College and Masters of Business Administration from Johns Hopkins University, and has served with distinction in a number of progressively responsible command positions supporting many operations and missions within the U.S. Navy; and

WHEREAS, Commander John Hensel and his wife Jeannie have been very active in youth sports leadership activities within the community in support of their sons Nick and Jack and have made a positive impact in Santa Rosa County.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Santa Rosa County Board of Commissioners heartily congratulates Cmdr. John Hensel on his command of Training Squadron Two (VT-2) aboard NAS Whiting Field and expresses thanks to Cmdr. Hensel and Jeannie Hensel for their many contributions to our community.

PRESENTED by the Board of County Commissioners of Santa Rosa County, Florida, on this 24th day of March, 2011.
