What's New

The 2012 Southeast Institute on Homelessness and Supportive Housing conference was held recently in beautiful Clearwater Beach, Florida! This year's theme was Building Successful Communities: What's New? What's Working? What's Next? Members of the ECOH staff were able to attend. By participating in events like this ECOH is able to better understand how other communities are working to eliminate homelessness and adapt our strategies to better accomplish our goals.

Every month the ECOH staff tours an agency or program that shares our mission of Preventing and Eliminating Homelessness. Want to spotlight your program? Call 439-3009 for more information.
