Dixie Bonds awarded Employee of the Quarter from County Administrator Dan Schebler and Commission Chairman Sam Parker, District 1

Dixie Bonds selected as Santa Rosa County employee of the quarter

Santa Rosa County's Human Resources Analyst Dixie Bonds was selected as employee of the first quarter by Human Resources Manager Cindy Williams. Bonds displays the attributes of an exceptional employee and exhibits a regular pattern of professionalism, helpfulness and positivity.

"Dixie happily accepts new challenges with a positive attitude; her reassuring can-do approach gives a confidence in knowing the job will be well taken care of," said Williams.

Often Bonds can be found in the computer lab assisting applicants with the employment process, as well as helping county employees with promotional opportunities. Since her start in the HR department, she has streamlined the employment process by creating a more efficient method that reduces the time it takes to hire new personnel.

"Whether it is a time-saving or a cost effective method, Dixie is exceedingly proactive," added Williams. "She is extremely valuable to the HR department."
