

A RULE PROVIDING FOR ANNUAL, SICK, COMPENSATORY, OVERTIME, ADMINISTRATIVE, MILITARY, MATERNITY, DISABILITY, EMERGENCY, LEAVE FOR INJURY ON THE JOB FOR CLASSIFIED COUNTY COMMISSIONS TAXING AUTHORITY EMPLOYEES; AND PROVIDING FURTHER THE HOURS OF WORK FOR THE CLASSIFIED EMPLOYEES BY TAXING AUTHORITY; AND PROVIDING FURTHER TAXING AUTHORITY PROCEDURES FOR ACCUMULATION OF LEAVE WHETHER ANNUAL, SICK, COMPENSATORY, PURSUANT TO SECTION 33 OF CHAPTER 79-561, SENATE BILL NO. 2275 OF SPECIAL ACTS, VOLUME II, LAWS OF FLORIDA 1994

SECTION I. Scope and Purpose. This rule sets forth the rules and regulations governing the attendance and leave of employees in Santa Rosa County.

SECTION II. Statement of Policy.

A. It is the policy of the Human Resource Department where conflict exists between any rule and the Fair Labor Standards Act, hereafter referred to as FLSA, the FLSA shall prevail after April 15, 1985.

B. Unless specifically approved by the Human Resource Department:

1. Exempt employees are those defined by the FLSA. Work periods will be governed by the FLSA.

a. The workday for each full-time exempt employee is typically 8 hours, however may vary depending on departmental requirements or agreements between the employer and employee, and the work week shall be 40 hours during a given 7 day period.

b. Overtime shall be compensated for by granting the employee compensatory leave or actual wages, as determined by the appointing authority. Application shall be in accordance with Section V. amended: 08/25/2005

2. Non-exempt employees are those defined by the FLSA. Work periods will be governed by the FLSA.

a. No county appointing authority shall operate on less than 40 hours work weeks, except as provided in Section VI, which authorizes specific holidays and other activities within the work week.

b. The work day for each full-time non-exempt employee is typically 8 hours, however may vary depending on departmental requirements or agreements between the employer and employee, and the work week shall be 40 hours during a given 7 day period.

c. The work period for each full-time non-exempt Law Enforcement employee shall be between 160 and 171 hours during an established 28 consecutive day period.

d. Overtime shall be compensated in accordance with the FLSA. Application of this policy shall be in accordance with Section V.

3. The workday for each part-time exempt and non-exempt employee is typically 4 hours, however may vary depending on departmental requirement or agreements between the employer and employee. A workweek of no less than 20 hours during a given 7 day period is required for insurance eligibility. amended: 03/25/2008

C. For all classified positions, the appointing authority shall arrange the employment and work program of the division in such a way that overtime is not required or permitted, except in emergency situations, or in the event of a special project. amended: 11/10/2004

Emergency situations are defined as:

1. Where an established post of duty must be covered 24 hours per day, and an employee is not available to cover that post on a given shift.

2. When danger to life, health, or well being of the public, employees, inmates, or other persons could occur if an employee is not required to be on duty or where danger to property is imminent.

3. Other situations where the appointing authority determines that the direct or indirect statutory responsibilities prescribed for the appointing authority cannot be accomplished unless overtime is authorized.

A special project is defined as:

A county approved assignment requiring committed involvement in the area of site development where the authorization of overtime is pre-approved by the appointing authority.

D. The granting of any leave of absence with or without pay must be approved by the Appointing Authority. An employee who is granted leave of absence without pay shall be an employee of the County classified service while on such leave. Employee shall be returned to the same position or a different position of the same class and same work location upon termination of the approved leave of absence. The appointing authority and the employee may agree, in writing, to other conditions and terms under which leave is to be granted.

E. Any leave of absence with or without pay must be authorized prior to the leave being taken.

1. When prior approval cannot be obtained by the employee due to emergencies, the appointing authority shall take one of the following actions:

a. Grant the employee leave with pay, provided the employee has sufficient accrued leave credits to cover the absence.

b. Place the employee on leave without pay for the absence, or

c. If the absence is for 3 consecutive workdays, consider the employee to have abandoned the position and resigned from Santa Rosa County. The appointing authority shall immediately notify the Civil Service Board of such action, and the employee shall be notified by the Civil Service Board by certified mail. The employee shall have ten (10) days from the date of the Civil Service Board letter to file an appeal to this action.

2. If an employee's request for leave of absence is disapproved and the employee takes unauthorized leave, the appointing authority shall place the employee on leave without pay and after an unauthorized leave of absence of three (3) consecutive workdays shall consider the employee to have abandoned the position and resigned from Santa Rosa County. amended: 05/31/2007

a. Requesting leave while not having a sufficient amount of leave time available at the time of leave being taken will result in the employee being placed in a non-pay status and subject to disciplinary action. The exception would be leave without pay in conjunction with the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA). Amended: 5/31/2007

3. Leave of absence without pay for thirty days or less may be granted by the appointing authority.

4. No leave shall be granted for the purpose of enabling a full-time employee to engage in other employment.

5. Employees granted leave under this section shall not be entitled to continue to accrue annual leave or sick leave credits.

6. An approved leave of absence without pay does not constitute a break in service, however, the total length of the employee's leave up to one hundred eighty (180) calendar days will not affect the hire-in date. If the total length of the leave exceeds the one hundred eighty days the entire leave of absence shall be deducted from the employees total service.

7. Failure of an employee to return to duty upon expiration of their leave without pay shall be interpreted as a resignation.

SECTION III. Hours of Work.

A. As provided in Section II, 8 hours shall constitute a workday, and 40 hours shall constitute a workweek for full-time employees, and typically, 4 hours shall constitute a workday, and typically 20 hours shall constitute a workweek for part-time employees; however, may vary depending on departmental requirement or agreements between the employer and employee, and may be less than 20 hours. A workweek of no less than 20 hours during a given 7 day period is required for insurance eligibility. amended: 03/25/2008

1. The Appointing Authority may allow certain employees to work less than 8 hour workdays; however, these employees will earn and accumulate leave prorated at a rate based on their hours of work. These employees shall be classified as part-time employees.

2. The work period for each full time non-exempt law enforcement employee shall be between 160 and 171 hours during an established 28 consecutive day period.

B. Employees filling established positions are expected to accomplish their work without overtime being required, except in emergency situations as defined in Section III.

C. Full-time employees shall be required to be present on their assigned job for the total hours in the established workday and workweek. Unless absence from duty is authorized by the appropriate authority in accordance with the provisions of this section.

D. Part-time employees shall be required to be present on their assigned jobs for the total number of hours for which they are being compensated, unless absence from duty is authorized by the appropriate authority in accordance with the provisions of this section.

E. Except for regular compensatory leave used during the workweek in which it is earned, all approved leave of absence with pay and holidays, including delayed holidays that are granted as special compensatory leave earned for working a holiday, shall be counted as time worked during a workweek. When actual hours worked plus such leave time used exceed the established workweek or work period, the employee shall be given regular compensatory time for those hours as authorized by the appointing authority within the guidelines of the FLSA

When actual hours worked minus such leave time used exceed the established work week or work period, the employee shall be given compensatory overtime for those hours as authorized by the appointing authority within the guidelines of the FLSA.

SECTION IV. Record Keeping.

A. Each appointing authority is required to keep accurate record of all hours worked by each employee, as well as a complete and accurate record of all authorized leave which is approved in accordance with this rule. Any employee who earns or uses compensatory leave credits in an amount of time which is less than a full hour shall be credited or charged with such leave to one decimal place in accordance with Section VII, B, 3.

B. The ultimate responsibility for the accuracy and proper maintenance of all attendance and leave records rests with the appointing authority.

C. Falsification of any attendance or leave record shall be cause for the dismissal of the employee or employees involved.

SECTION V. Overtime. Unless otherwise provided for herein, compensation will be made in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA).

A. Non-exempt employees.

1. Overtime is defined as work performed by an employee beyond the established workweek or work period within the requirements of the FLSA.

2. When an employee is required to attend training courses and seminars, attendance at and travel to and from such training courses and seminars shall be considered as time physically on duty.

Overtime shall be recognized by compensating the employee on an hour for hour basis. When hours are physically worked over the established work week or work period, when an employee works on a holiday, or when an employee is subject to a special project as defined in section II, compensation will be earned at a ratio of one and one half hours for each hour worked. Any employee that is required to be on standby duty shall be allowed to be compensated for overtime hours. "Standby duty" being defined by the FLSA. The appointing authority may give a defined amount of compensation to an employee that is required to be "On Call". "On-Call" as defined by the FLSA. An appointing authority may compensate an employee for overtime with actual wages or compensatory time. Amended: 8/25/2005

3. Cash payment for any type of unused compensatory leave credits will be made if the employee moves to another appointing authority or ends employment in the classified service.

When an employee accrues any type of compensatory leave the appointing authority SHALL require the employee to use this leave prior to using annual leave credits. Leave shall be used in the following order; overtime compensatory hours, regular compensatory hours, annual leave.

B. Exempt Employees.

1. Overtime is defined as work performed by an employee beyond the established workday or work period.

2. Cash payment for any type of unused compensatory leave credits will be made if the employee moves to another appointing authority or ends employment in the classified service.

3. When an employee accrues any type of compensatory leave credits, the appointing authority SHALL require the employee to use this leave in lieu of annual leave credits.

SECTION VI. Holidays and Other Authorized Activities.

A. The following holidays are authorized for classified employees by the Human Resource Department: (rules applying to holidays will also apply to days of mourning)

1. Paid Holidays

New Year's Day	Labor Day
Martin Luther King's Birthday	Veteran's Day
Good Friday	Thanksgiving Day
Memorial Day	Friday after Thanksgiving
Independence Day	Christmas Eve
Christmas Day

2. Generally, if any of these holidays fall on Saturday, the preceding Friday will be observed as a holiday; or if any of these holidays fall on Sunday, the following Monday will be observed as a holiday. Shift workers will observe holidays on the actual day that the holiday occurs.

3. Due to unusual operational needs, an appointing authority may request that the Human Resource Department approve a variation in the holiday schedule for employees; however, the number of holidays approved shall not exceed the number of holidays authorized by this section.

4. Part-time employee's compensation shall be prorated at a rate based on their hours of work as per SECTION VI. D.

B. The Human Resource Department may designate any other workday as a holiday for employees of the classified service. Taxing Authorities may declare a day of mourning in observance of the death of a statesman in recognition of services rendered to the state or nation.

C. In municipalities in Santa Rosa County, when events are organized to celebrate some occasion in the locality, any employee who is desirous of attending such event may be granted annual or compensatory leave for that purpose, but shall not be granted any other type of leave with pay. This rule shall also apply to any holiday which is not specifically named or designated a holiday by the Human Resource Department in accordance with this rule.

D. Each employee shall be given all holidays designated in Section VI, if the workload of the division is such that the employee's work can be discontinued.

1. If the holiday falls on the employee's regular workday and the employee is required to work the employee shall be compensated at a ratio of one and one half hours for each hour worked.

2. If the holiday falls on the employee's regular workday and the employee is not required to work the employee shall be compensated at an hourly ratio of one for one for the hours the employee is normally scheduled to work (e.g. H8, H10, H12).

3. If the holiday falls on the employee's regular day off and the employee is not required to work, the employee shall be compensated at an hourly ratio of one for one, up to an eight (8) hour period.

4. If the holiday falls on the employee's regular day off and the employee is required to work, the employee shall be compensated at a ratio of one and one half hours for each hour worked.

5. If an employee is scheduled to work a holiday and for any reason does not work that day, holiday compensation will be for only eight (8) hours.

Holidays occurring during a work week/period involving special project events shall be counted as actual time worked for employees activity involved in such projects, the eligible employee is entitled to receive time and one-half for time normally offset by the occurrence of a holiday. Leave taken by the employee (compensatory leave, annual and sick) will reduce the amount of overtime pay based on the 40 hour work week/period. amended: 11/10/2004

E. Employees who are on approved leave with pay when holidays, allowed in this section, occur or by a state day of mourning is declared shall not have such days charged against their accrued leave credits.

F. Employees in a non-pay status, or suspension during any portion of the last scheduled workday before a holiday, shall not be eligible to receive payment for such holiday. The exception would be an employee on workers' compensation. amended: 12/8/2016

G. Each appointing authority may allow employees one work break during the first half of their work shift and one work break during the second half of their work shift, provided that:

1. An employee may not accumulate unused work breaks.

2. Work break time shall not be authorized for covering an employee's late arrival on duty or early departure from duty.

SECTION VII. Annual Leave.

A. Method of earning annual leave.

1. Full-time employees hired prior to April 24, 2003, who are filling established positions shall earn annual leave as shown in the following table:

Continuous and Creditable Service	Hours Leave Earned During Year
1 - 4 Years	96
5 - 9 Years	120
10 - 14 Years	144
15 - 19 Years	168
20 + Years	192

Full-time employees hired after April 24, 2003, who are filling established positions, shall earn annual leave as follows:

Eight (8) hours of annual leave credits per month from the first (1st) through the tenth (10th) year of continuous and creditable service. Twelve (12) hours per month shall accrue after ten (10) years of continuous and creditable service. A maximum accumulation of 240 hours per year is allowed. On December 31, all annual leave hours over 240 will transfer to sick leave.
amended: 11/13/2003

Full-time employees who work a fixed percentage of the pay period shall earn annual leave credits proportionate to the time worked.

2. Annual leave earned during any pay period shall be credited to the employee on the first day of the following month or, in case of separation, on the last day the employee is on the payroll. amended: 1/27/2011

3. During leaves of absence with pay, an employee shall continue to earn leave credits, except in the case where an employee is granted educational leave with pay or is granted leave in conjunction with a resignation from county government. In such cases the employee shall not earn annual leave credits during leave of absence.

4. Each appointing authority should make every effort to insure that annual leave is used on a current yearly basis in order to provide employees with vacation and proper rest and relaxation. By following this practice, employees will not normally accrue annual leave in excess of that earned each year. amended: 1/27/2011

5. Under circumstances involving natural disasters or other emergencies an appointing authority may be required to cancel all approved leaves and to disapprove any requests for leave during an extended period of time which would prevent employees from using their accrued annual leave. When an emergency exists and the appointing authority cancels approved leave, the Human Resource Department shall be notified immediately.

B. Use of earned annual leave.

1. Annual leave should be used to provide periodic vacation; however, earned annual leave credits may be used for any other purpose when authorized by the appointing authority or the Human Resource Department.

2. Use of annual leave shall not be authorized prior to the time it is earned and credited to the employee and shall only be used with the approval of the appointing authority within the department.

3. An employee who uses annual leave in an amount of time which is less than a full hour shall be charged with such leave based on one of the following formulas, as determined by the appointing authority. amended: 11/10/2005

All hours worked shall be rounded to the nearest quarter of an hour, as follows:

Minutes Worked Or Leave Used	Time Charged
	Minutes	Hours
0 – 7	00	.00
8 – 22	15	.25
23 – 37	30	.50
38 – 52	45	.75
53 – 60	60	1.00

Time worked shall be calculated from the following table. Normal work day minus time worked equals time used.

Example:	Normal work day	8:00 = total time	8.0
	Actual time worked	7:15 = earned time	7.25
	Time used	:45 = used time	.75

Time Earned	Minutes Worked	Time Earned	Minutes Worked
1 - 6	.1	31 - 36	.6
7 - 12	.2	37 - 42	.7
13 - 18	.3	43 - 48	.8
19 -24	.4	49 - 54	.9
25 - 30	.5	55 - 60	1.0

4. Appointing authorities shall use the same method for all employees in their organization.

C. Transfer of earned annual leave.

An employee who transfers from one department to another department in County shall be credited with unused annual leave by the receiving authority provided there is no break in service as defined in Rule 79-3.

D. Forfeiture of leave. An employee shall forfeit all rights of benefits under Section VII, if, an act or offense is committed while in the classified service and one of the following applies:

1. Has admitted to or is found guilty in a court of competent jurisdiction of committing, aiding or abetting any embezzlement, theft or bribery in connection with Santa Rosa County.
2. Is found guilty by a court of competent jurisdiction of having violated any state law prohibiting strikes by public employees.

E. Payment of earned annual leave

1. Employees shall be paid for unused annual leave upon separation from the County after six (6) months of satisfactory, continuous and creditable service, in the last paycheck; before the effective beginning date of participation in The Deferred Retirement Option Plan "DROP". Amended: 12/8/2016

a. If employment is terminated as a result of any act referenced in Section VII, D, the employee shall not be paid for any unused annual leave credits even though the employee has six months creditable service.

2. In case of death of an employee, payment of unused annual leave at the time of death shall be made to the employee's beneficiary, estate, or as provided by law. Such payment shall be made at the rate of pay at the time of death and by the department in which the employee was last employed.

3. Terminal leave payment due employees shall be computed as follows:

- a. Determine the current hourly rate in accordance with the employee's base salary.
- b. Multiply the number of unused annual leave hours times hourly rate to determine the payment which shall be made. All such payments for accrued annual leave shall be made in a lump sum and the employee shall not be carried on the department payroll beyond the last official day of employment.

4. Upon terminal separation or death of the employee, hired prior to April 24, 2003, payment for accrued annual leave will not exceed 500 hours. Payment for employees hired after April 24, 2003 shall not exceed 240 hours. If at the time an employee enters DROP they do not have 500 hours of annual leave, or 240 for those hired after April 24, 2003, they may be paid for subsequent accumulated annual leave at the time of final separation, but the total number of hours for all payments shall not exceed 500 hours, or 240 for employees hired after April 24, 2003. Payment for annual leave associated with Temporarily Terminated Status, as defined in section 15 of the special act, will not affect the 500 hour cap, or for employees with a 240 cap, at terminal separation.

5. Payment shall be made at the employee's current rate of pay.

SECTION VIII. Sick Leave.

A. Method of earning sick leave.

1. All full-time employees filling established positions shall earn 8 hours of sick leave for each full calendar month of employment.

2. Part-time employees who work a fixed percentage of the pay period shall earn leave credits for hours worked during the pay period proportionate to the time worked.

3. During leave of absence with pay, an employee shall continue to earn sick leave credits, except when an employee is granted educational leave with pay or is granted leave in conjunction with resignation from county government. In such case, the employee shall not earn sick leave credits during that leave of absence.

Sick leave earned during any pay period shall be credited to the employee on the first day of the following month, or in the case of separation, on the last day the employee is on the payroll.

B. Use of earned sick leave.

1. Use of sick leave shall not be authorized prior to the time it is earned and credited to the employee and shall only be used with the approval of the appointing authority within the department.

2. Sick leave shall be authorized only for the following purposes:

- a. The employee's personal illness, injury or exposure to a contagious disease which would endanger others. Personal illness shall include disability caused or contributed to by pregnancy, miscarriage, abortion, childbirth and recovery. Therefore, any sick leave credits used for these reasons shall be authorized only by the appointing authority.

- b. The employee's personal appointments with a doctor, dentist or other recognized practitioner when it is not possible to arrange such appointment for off duty hours.

c. Illness or injury of a member of the employee's immediate family. Immediate family is defined as the spouse, grandparents, parents, brothers, sisters, children and grandchildren of both the employee and the spouse. amended: 02/26/2004

d. Four (4) days of personal leave will be allowed annually to any employee; provided that these days shall be charged to accrued sick leave; provided further, that personal leave days shall be non-cumulative.

3. Notification of absence due to illness, injury or exposure to a contagious disease shall be given to the appropriate authority by the employee or the employee's representative as soon as possible on the first day of absence.

4. Upon request, an employee shall be allowed to use accrued sick leave credits as provided in this section.

a. After 3 workdays of absence in any month, the appointing authority may require a medical certification of the employee's illness before authorizing any additional use of sick leave credits by the employee.

b. After ten consecutive days of absence, the employee shall submit to the appointing authority a medical certificate from the attending physician before any additional use of sick leave credits can be authorized for the employee. If the employee continues to be absent, the appointing authority shall require further medical certification for each thirty (30) consecutive days of absence, unless the appointing authority has personal knowledge that the employee is hospitalized and unable to return to work. Such medical certification must state that the employee is unable to perform the regularly assigned duties if sick leave is to be authorized by the appointing authority.

c. If the medical certification furnished by the employee is not acceptable to the Human Resource Department, the board shall require the employee to submit to a medical examination which shall be paid for by the appointing authority. Based on the medical certification, the Human Resource Department shall:

(1) If the employee is evaluated as fit for work, shall not approve further use of sick leave credits.

(2) If the employee's health is evaluated as unfit for work, shall allow the employee to use accrued sick leave credits until such leave credits have been used or until the employee is able to return to work, whichever occurs first. If the employee is unable to return to work after all sick leave credits have been used, the employee shall be allowed to use any accrued compensatory or annual leave credits before being placed on leave without pay.

d. An employee who, upon request by the appointing authority, refuses to comply with these rules shall not be eligible to use accrued sick leave credits, and any absence from work shall be handled in accordance with Section II.

5. An employee who becomes ill while on approved annual leave, compensatory leave or maternity leave shall be allowed to use accrued sick leave credits to cover the period of illness. An employee who is on any other type leave with or without pay shall not be allowed to use sick leave credits while on such leave.

6. An employee who uses sick leave in an amount of time less than a full hour shall be charged with such leave using the following formula, as determined by the appointing authority.
amended: 11/10/2005

All hours worked shall be rounded to the nearest quarter of an hour, as follows:

Minutes Worked Or Leave Used	Time Charged
	Minutes	Hours
0 – 7	00	.00
8 – 22	15	.25
23 – 37	30	.50
38 – 52	45	.75
53 – 60	60	1.00

Time worked shall be calculated from the following table. Normal work day minus time worked equals time used.

Example:	Normal work day	8:00 = total time	8.0
	Actual time worked	7:15 = earned time	7.3
	Time used	:45 = used time	.7

Minutes Worked	Time Earned	Minutes Worked	Time Earned
1 - 6	.1	31 - 36	.6
7 - 12	.2	37 - 42	.7
13 - 18	.3	43 - 48	.8
19 - 24	.4	49 - 54	.9
25 - 30	.5	55 - 60	1.0

7. Appointing authorities shall use the same method for all employees in their organization.

8. Such leave shall be used on a "first in - first out" basis, with sick leave accumulated prior to this rule being used first.

C. Transfer of unused sick leave.

An employee who transfers from one position to another position in County shall be credited with unused sick leave by the receiving authority.

D. Forfeiture of sick leave. An employee shall forfeit all right of benefits under Section VIII, if an act or offense is committed while in the classified service and one of the following applies:

1. Has admitted to or is found guilty in a court of competent jurisdiction of committing, aiding, or abetting any embezzlement, theft or bribery in connection with Santa Rosa County, or
2. Is found guilty by a court of competent jurisdiction of having violated any state law prohibiting strikes by public employees.

E. Payment of unused sick leave.

1. If employment is terminated as a result of any act defined in Section VIII, the employee shall not be paid for any unused sick leave credits even though the employee has six months creditable service.

2. Employees shall be paid for unused sick leave credits when the employee has completed six (6) months of satisfactory, continuous and creditable service, and:

a. Separates from the County because of “normal” retirement with the effective date as determined by the State Retirement System, those hired prior to April 24, 2003 and begin participation in DROP, or death. If the employee is charged with misconduct and elects to retire or resign from County in lieu of a hearing before the Civil Service Board on such misconduct charge, the employee shall NOT be entitled to any accrued sick leave payment. In the case of death, payment for accrued unused sick leave credits shall be made to the employee's beneficiary, estate or as otherwise provided by law, OR

b. The employee’s position is involuntarily transferred to another governmental agency. No payment shall be made for any sick leave recognized by the governmental agency to which the position is transferred. amended: 07/08/2004

3. An employee who is eligible for payment for unused sick leave credits shall be compensated at the rate of pay they were receiving at the time of eligibility for payment.

4. All such payments for unused sick leave credits shall be made in lump sum or two payments or according to the schedule below for DROP participants hired prior to April 24, 2003 with at least 400 hours of accumulated sick leave. The employee shall not be carried on the department payroll beyond the last official day of employment. amended: 11/12/2015

An employee hired prior to April 24, 2003 participating in DROP and has at least 400 hours of accumulated sick leave, shall have payment distributed according to the following table:

amended: 11/12/2015

Months in DROP	Number of Payments	Portion for Each Payment
01-12	2	½, and balance
13-24	3	1/3, ½, and balance
25-36	4	¼, 1/3, ½, and balance
37-48	5	1/5, ¼, 1/3, ½, and balance
49-60	6	1/6, 1/5, ¼, 1/3, ½ and balance

Payments shall be as follows:

The first and all succeeding payments, other than the final payment, shall be in December, starting in the year the employee enters DROP. The final payment shall be in the month following the last date worked. (Example, last day worked = June 30, final payment = July.) If an employee enters and exits DROP and will not be employed in December of that year, then the remaining balance shall be paid in the month following the last date worked. At no time when a payment is to be made, other than the final one, shall the number of remaining days of sick leave be allowed to be less than 400 hours. If that would be the case then either a partial payment or NO pay shall be made.

5. The payments made pursuant to this section shall not be considered as salary payments and shall not be used in determining the average final compensation of the employee in any State/ County administered retirement system.

6. Sick leave earned during any pay period shall be credited to the employee on the last day of the month or, in the case of retirement or death, on the last day the employee is on the payroll. Employees, hired prior to April 24, 2003, will be paid for 100% of their leave balance at 75% of their rate of pay at the time of retirement. Employees, hired after April 24, 2003, will be paid 25% of their leave balance with 480 hours being the maximum amount allowed at the time of retirement or DROP termination. When separation is due to the death of the employee, the beneficiary will receive 100% of the sick leave balance at 100% of the rate of pay at the time of separation. amended: 11/12/2015

7. No payment for unused sick leave shall be made if the employee has been found guilty or has admitted to being guilty of any disqualifying act as referenced in Section VIII D.

SECTION IX. Disability Leave.

A. Disability leave is available to an eligible employee who has been absent from work in his or her position due to the employee's own medical condition. Disability leave is unpaid.

- B. In order to be eligible for disability leave, an employee must: (1) be a full-time employee who has complete his or her probationary employment period; and (2) has provided to the County's Human Resources Department medical documentation from his or her health care provider establishing to the County's satisfaction that the employee is unable to perform the essential functions of his or her position with or without reasonable accommodation. Any eligible employee may request disability leave by contacting the County's Human Resources Department and making a written request.
- C. Upon receipt of an employee's written request, the Appointing Authority will make a determination as to whether the employee will be granted disability leave, and if so, the amount and duration of the leave to be provided.
- D. Typically, without notification from the County's Human Resources Department to the contrary, if an employee who is absent from work pursuant to this section is simultaneously absent from work due to a workers' compensation injury and/or his or her own Family and Medical Leave Act ("FMLA") qualifying serious health condition, then the employee's disability leave will run contemporaneously with his or her FMLA and/or workers' compensation leaves of absence.

County employees who are simultaneously on disability leave pursuant to this policy, as well as FMLA leave, must comply with any and all certification, recertification, and fitness for duty certification obligations requested by the County in accordance with FMLA and its applicable regulations. County employees who have either exhausted their leave the FMLA, or who are not eligible for FMLA leave, may be required to provide medical certifications, recertifications, and fitness for duty certifications necessary to establish the employee's (1) need for disability leave; (2) continued need for disability leave; and (3) ability to return to work in his or her former position.

The County's Disability Policy neither created nor provides any rights greater than those provided by the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA"), the FMLA or any other applicable federal or state law. Amended: 4/11/2013

SECTION X. Administrative Leave.

A. Court.

1. An employee who is summoned as a member of a jury panel shall be granted administrative leave with pay, and any jury fees shall be retained by the employee. The appointing authority shall not reimburse the employee for meals, lodging and travel expenses incurred while serving as a juror.
