

In compliance with orders from local and State officials and to maintain the safety of patrons and employees, the Santa Rosa Library System is implementing a phased approach to re-opening.

Mon., Jun. 8

- Libraries are open to the public for browsing and computer use from 10 a.m. – 4 p.m.
 - Advanced computer reservations are NOT required.
 - All library meeting rooms remain closed until further notice.
- To encourage social distancing, a limited number of patrons will be allowed inside at a time.
- Masks are encouraged. Hand sanitizing stations will be available.
- Curbside pickup will still be available; patrons are encouraged to continue using this service.
- All items must be returned in the outside book drops.
- Donations are NOT being accepted at this time. Do not leave items outside the library.
- Call 981-READ (7323) for questions.

Mon., Jun. 15

- Interlibrary Loan (ILL) services will resume.
- Online forms will be available on the ILL web page. Paper forms will be available at the libraries.
- Patrons who checked out ILL items prior to the COVID-19 closures should return those items to the library book drop immediately.
