Proposed New Judicial Center Information Available Online

Information on the Santa Rosa County Commission's process to construct a new judicial center is now available online at www.santarosa.fl.gov or by clicking here. The webpage includes a timeline and answers to frequently asked questions. The timeline is a summary of commission actions on the proposed judicial center since November 2011 with meeting video replay, minutes and support documents. Additionally, the site offers answers to frequently asked questions on the proposed judicial center and local option sales taxes.
